BROOKLYN (N. I.). 7; BOSTON (N. I.). 6. BOSTON, Aug. 18.—Brooklyn increased her lead in the National League by winning from Boston to-day. It was a hotly contested game but the Bostons were squarely outplayed. Most of the game was played in the rain, and the ball was too slippery to handle cleanly. But the errors were preity evenly divided. Brooklyn won the game by a streak of batting in the fourth inning, when five consecutive hits and three errors yielded five runs for the visitors. The Bostons played very badly in the second and fourth innings. The Brooklyns, too, were decidedly off in their field work. The

NEW YORK (P. L.), 6; BROOKLYN (P. L.), 3. No two clubs in the arena struggle harder for supremacy when they meet upon the field than the Brooklyns and New Yorks of the Players' League. There are certain elements in the two teams that have never failed to produce just such a result. Yesterday the New duce just such a result. Yesterday the New Yorks won with something to spare, although they started off with a rush and maintained a case-sided lead until the last inning. For the first time in his career as a Piayers League member. Hemming faced the New York team. He depended more upon his skill as a "curver" than speed at the outset and this led to the downfall of his team more than anything else. The New Yorks made five his in the first inning, including a three-bagger by Ewing, and all the runs were scored. The score:

Reeping Tabs on the Boys. WARRINGTON, Aug. 15 -" Up to July 1," said President Young of the National League to-day, "we lost money, but since that time we have made a little, or at least we have kept aven with our expenses. About July 20, with a view to ascertaining just where the Brotherhood tood, President Spalding of the Chicago Club detailed men to visit their grounds and make a report of the actual number of persons who passed through the turn-stilles. Fubsequently the same plan was adopted at Cleveland and Pittsburgh, and the attendance figures or these three cities from that time are now in my for these three cities from that time are now in my possession. Pitcher Sharrott made a very good showing against the Fhiladelphia team, holding them down to one hit in the last four innings of the game.

It will probably be a couple of weeks yet before O'Rourke will be in condition to play again. He is lust barely able to lift both arms above his head.

Mickey Welch being sick, Manager Mutrie had to put either marrott or Burkett in the box. If he had selected the former at first the chances are that the New Yorks would have won. Swaccus, Aug. 13.—Pitcher Lipcoln, formerly of the Cleveland National League, has been released after losing the only two games he pitched for Syracuse, Marr Phillips has been signed by Manager France. Pitcher Crane reported to Manager Ewing at the cinb house yesterday and acknowledged that he had com-mitted a grievous wrong and said he was willing to pay the penalty forit. Manager Ewing told Crane that it was one of the most disgraceful things that could have happened to the club. It is thought that Crane will be punished by a heavy dis. To win, Rogers would have had to pass Bent, and this he instantly declared he had not done.

MISBAPS AT GUTTENBURG.

Four Horses Down in One Race-Unineky Thirteen-Good Day for Settors, the largest of the meeting, and the thirty-odd bookmakers were overrun with business. Three favorites won, and the other three races were captured by horses well up in the betting. Juggler, at 7 to 1 against, being the outsider of the day, so indicious investors got a little the best of the bookmakers. A queer series of accidents, hinging on the generally considered unlucky number thirteen, caused flurries of excitement. Thirteen started in the second race, a dash of seven furlongs. Four of the thirteen horses came in without rid-ers. When the thirteen awang into the homestsetch the Armonette filly, with Deamond in the saddle, ran Nomad, ridden by Jones, into the fence, the horses and riders went down. Miller on Japhet, and Roundsman. with Connelly in the saddle, mingling with the heap, almost simultaneously. Miller had his hip dislocated and was taken to a hospital for treatment. Jones escaped with slight cuts on his arm, and Desmond received an ugly shaking up. Fortunately, the other riders and the horses escaped unturt. Jockey Day, who had the mount on Speedwell, No. 13. In the fourth race, fell off his horse in a fit while at the post, Hueston taking his place, while Juggler kicked Little Minnie so badly that she had to be drawn from the race. Superstitious sports said all this happened because it was the thirseanth day of the meeting.

Go Lincky asix to one chance, won the second race, after the general tumble, by three lengths, vance, the favorite, beating hipton, third choice, three lengths for the place. The crowd railled on Vigilant, with Bergen up, for the third race, and the favorite ridor sent the horse in a handy winner by a length, Bela getting the place from Jennie McFariand by three lengths. Juggler, at 7 to 1, made his run in the last furlong in the fourth race, winning by a length: Tanner, third choice, getting the place from Irene, the favorite, by five lengths. Servia was selected by the talent for the fifth race, at 8 to 5, and she landed the money safely, king Girl santching the place from Foxhill by a neck. Lancaster, third choice in the last race, won by a length in a hot brush with Slumber. Marty B., the favorite, was third. Here are the summaries:

A yearling filly by Lord Russell has been sold to R. C. Fatill for $1,500. and the three-year-old coit Bobby Beach, by Faustus, to J. M. Brown & Co. for $5,000.

The string of W. H. Timmons will arrive at Guttenburg this week from Chicago. Timmons's experience in the West has been a very unfortunate one, as his horses all fell sick shortly after he arrived at Chicago, and he has not been able to win a single race. G. V. Hankins & Co. will also send their string to New York this week on account of nearly every horse in the stable having lost form to such an extent that it was uscless to start them. They will be sent to the seashore for a rest, and will probably be started at the fail meeting of the Brooklyn Jockey Club.

ROWING AT WORCESTER.

The Opening Bay of the National Associa-

The attendance at Guttenburg yesterday was WORCESTER, Aug. 13.-The eighteenth annual regatta of the National Association of Amateur Oarsmen began on the college course at Lake Quinsigamod this afternoon. Of the six races rowed five were one mile and one-balf straight away and the next was a quarter of a mile dash for a medal, the gift of John A. St. John of St. Louis. The attendance was confined principally to boating men, and about 1,000 saw the races, which were in every way admirable, some of them as good as the best ever seen on the lake. The fun began with the first heat in the senior sculls, the entries being George J. Kirby, Pawtucket Boat Club; Frederick S. Hawkins, Metropolitan Rowing Club; Charles E. Bulger, Mutual Boat Club, and William Caffrey, Lawrence Cance Club. All save Freeth were on the line promptly on time and were sent off together. Caffrey was the favorite in the pools, and he quickly went to the front, with Hawkins, who sold as second choice, fol-lowing him closely, and Bulger, to the surprise of the knowing ones, following the pace, Kirby, who was in his first race, was out of it from the start, although he pulled a next stroke which gives promise of better results in the hear future.

start, although he pulled a nest stroke which gives promise of better results in the near ruture.

Hawkins made a good race for a mile, but when Bulger tackled him on the last half he could not respond to the spurt, and was beaten out for second nlace. Caffrey winning the race in 10:25%, with Bulger second in 10:31%. Hawkins was third. Caffrey's friends were present in large numbers, and were jubliant over the results.

In the second heat of the senior single sculls the entries were: G. O. Nettlefon, Minnesota Boat Club; Edward J. Carney, Institute Beat Club; E. Newton Atherion, Metropolitan Rowing Club. Carney was the favorite. The men got off all together, but soon found Nettleton making Carney husle for first place. For over a mile it was a hot context between tarney and Nettleton, but the former proved himself much the better stayer. Carney's institute may an Actileton's 9:52%. Atherton was not in the race.

The third race of the junjor single sculls had but two starters—Joseph Wright of the Toronio Rowing Club and Albert C. Dowling of the Crescent Boat Club of Boston. Wright was the favorite. It was a slashing race from start to finish. Dowling finished first in 10:31%, while Wright's time was 10:40%.

The second heat of the junior single sculls had Albert E. Bonnett, Worcester Boat Club; O. W. Dyer, Bradford Boat Club, and P. Lehaney, Albany Rowing Club. Lehaney, was looked upon as a sure winner, but the knowing ones got left badly, the boy, Bennett, taking the race, the first in which he ever started. The Albany man made a gallust finish, but when the boat crossed the line Bennett's was about two feet to the fore in 19:05. The race of the day was the senior four oars. The entries and the make up of the crews was as follows:

Sau, 2: Max Sau, 3: 0. C. Dempsey, stroke.

It was a hot contest from start to finish. The Ataianias took the water first, closely followed by the Bradfords. Over on the Worcester shore there were signs of trouble, and in no less than a hundred rods the Albanys and the Ottawas were all mixed together. Referee Stimpson called them all back for a fresh start, and in a few moments all were at it again. As in the first heat, the Ataianias jumped in ahead, the Bradfords were after them for business, and the Bradfords were soon on close for confort. The Ataianias were of their course before a quarter of a mile had been rowed, and the Bradfords were soon on even terms with them. Then the Ataianias lost more ground by running over to the Shrowsbury shore, and the Argonauts began to crowd them for second place. At the mile stake the Bradfords were booked as sure winners, having a lead of three lengths, and crossed the line a length ahead in 8:40%; Atafinitus second in 8:43%, Argonauts third, Albanys fourth, Ottawas last.

Then came the saurt race, one-fourth of a mile, with these entries: James P. Fox, Crescent Boat Club; John E. Nagle, Metropolitan Rowing Club; William Caffrey, Lawrence
Canos Club; Edward Carney, Institute Boat Club; George Freeth, Varuna Boat Club; E.
